Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b.c.d.e)

Following a risk assessment of the premises we have not identified any additional steps that are necessary other than any identified below.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Stop the sale of alcohol a min of 30 mins before closing time.

Stop any regulated entertainment a min of 1hr before closing time.

c) Public safety

No measures identified in addition to the Fire Safety and the Health & Safety Risk Assessments.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Staff to monitor noise levels to ensure there is no public nuisance and urge customers to leave quietly

e) The protection of children from harm

The licence holders shall adopt a 'Challenge 21 Policy'. All staff to be trained to ask customers who do not look to be over 21 for proof of age to establish that they are over 18. Staff will only accept the following as means of identification:

- PASS Card
- Photo driving licence
- Passport

The premises will display notices informing customers that this policy is in operation.

Staff will maintain a register of "refusals" which may be inspected at any time by Police or enforcement officers
