Notes	I would like to strongly object to the proposed cafe and especially because of the request to have alcohol licence in the evenings. There are a lot of residents on the street including myself, some h young children. The licenced time runs until 11 pm but there will then be drinking up time and then de people outside, talking loudly, for some time after this e.g. whilst waiting for taxis. Downing Street is race track late at night, so there is risk of the safety of Hamilton's customers who will not be expect traffic.	ave runk often a
