COUNCIL

26 APRIL 2022

Title:

CORPORATE EQUALITY OBJECTIVES 2022 – 25

Portfolio Holder: Cllr Penny Marriott
Head of Service: All Heads of Service
Key decision: No
Access: Public

1. Purpose and summary

The purpose of this report is to propose a new set of corporate equality objectives for recommendation to Council and an associated action plan.

The proposed Corporate Equality Objectives and associated Action Plan are set out in Annexe 1 to this report.

2. Recommendation

It is recommended that the Council:

- i approves the Corporate Equality Objectives 2022- 25 as set out at Annexe 1 and
- ii notes that the Corporate Equality Group undertakes to monitor the implementation of the associated Action Plan.

3. Reason for the recommendation

To provide Executive members the opportunity to consider the Equality Objectives and Action Plan and make recommendations to Council.

4. Background

4.1 Under the Equality Act 2010, the Council has a number of both general and specific duties. The general duties state that a local authority, in the exercise of their functions, must have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not, tackling prejudice and promoting understanding.

4.2 Advancing equality of opportunity means:

- removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people with protected characteristics due to having that characteristic
- taking steps to meet the needs of people with protected characteristics that are different from people who do not have that characteristic (including taking account of a disability).

- encouraging protected groups to participate in public life and in any other activity where participation is disproportionately low.

4.3 Protected characteristics are as follows:

- Age
- Disability
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Religion or belief
- Race
- Sex
- Sexual orientation
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership

4.4 In addition to general duties under the Equality Act, a local authority also has two specific duties to:

1. Publish equality information annually to demonstrate compliance with the General Equality Duty. The information has to include information relating to people with protected characteristics who are:

- Employees
- Affected by its policies and practices

All information should be published in an accessible manner. The Council publishes an annual workforce report on the Council's website to meet this duty.

2. Prepare and publish one or more equality objectives we think we can achieve in order to carry out our General Equality Duty, at least every four years.

The Council's original equality objectives were first published in 2012 and although they have been reviewed since there have been no major changes. The current Equality Objectives are set out at Annexe 2 to this report.

4.5 Last year the Corporate Equality Group, which consists of a number of staff from across the organisation together with the Portfolio Holder for Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, started to develop a new set of equality objectives. The collective ideas were refined during a number of sessions and were then presented to the Managers Group and lastly the Senior Management Team. The equality objectives recognise that the Council has a role as a service provider, an employer and as a community leader. The objectives therefore are both inward and outward looking.

4.6 Set out at Annexe 1 are the proposed Corporate Equality Objectives for consideration by the Executive. In addition to the high-level objectives, there are a number of commitments which it is proposed the Council will focus on in the next two years. In order to assess progress on these commitments, an Action Plan has been developed which will be monitored by the Corporate Equality Group and reviewed six-monthly.

5. Relationship to the Corporate Strategy and Service Plans

The Corporate Equality Objectives underpin the Corporate Strategy and are reflected in the Council's commitment to "promote the value and worth of all residents, with opportunities for all, regardless of race, age, disability, religion, gender or sexual orientation, income or wealth” and to provide “high quality public services accessible for all”.
