	Rule	Waverley	Guildford	Proposed	Comments
1	Introduction	Currently the WBC's constitution does not include an introduction to the CPR	Currently the GBC's constitution does not include an introduction to the CPR	Introduction that covers (1) interpretation, (2) General rules, including (a) alterations, changes (by monitoring Officer) and recommendations from the Group/Committee (with responsibility for constitution amendments), (b) relevant legislation, (c) designated officers and (d) personal data. (3) Notices and (4) Person Presiding Decision Final	Provides an overview, background, and introduction to the CPR which neither council currently have.
2	Annual meeting of the Council	To elect a Chair, elect a Mayor and a Deputy Mayor, minutes, apologies, announcements from the mayor & or JCE, AOB & summons, establish committees, appoint committee chairs, and vice Chair, including O&S. In a year where there is an ordinary election appoint a Leader and if known Executive members	To elect a Chair, elect a Mayor and a Deputy Mayor, apologies, minutes, announcements from the Mayor, AOB & summons. Separate appointment meeting to: elect a Chair, elect a Mayor and a Deputy Mayor, minutes, apologies, announcements from the mayor & or JCE, AOB & summons, establish committees, appoint committee chairs, and vice Chair, including O&S. In a year where there is an ordinary election appoint a Leader and if known Executive members	Also now includes: announcements from the Mayor, Head of Paid Service, Chief Finance Officer and/or Monitoring Officer; Give a vote of thanks to the retiring Chair and Vice-Chair; Receive a report from the Leader on the appointment of the Deputy Leader as and when required, on the Deputy Leader, Executive Members, Joint Executive Arrangements and the Executive Scheme of Delegations; In an election year, receive	Covers many of the clauses GBC rules and those that are not covered by Waverley. It will also allow more flexibility at the Annual meeting for both councils.

3	Ordinary Council meetings	No Change	Will include Mayor's announcements	Covers the same clause as WBC and includes the mayor's announcements, which GBC does not.	Easily adoptable
4	Extraordinary meetings of Council	Council business is confined to a single item	To consider the business for which the extraordinary meeting has been called.	The only items of business which will be considered at extraordinary meetings of the Council will be the items for which the meeting has been called.	Align the rules and allows WBC greater flexibility
5	Special Meetings of Council	The WBC constitution does not include special meeting arrangements in the CPR	The GBC constitution does not include special meeting arrangements in the CPR	A Special Meeting of the Council is one that is required by statute or by the Council and shall only consider a single	This allows both councils the flexibility to hold special meetings or a single item, and is

				substantive item of business.	in line with other councils
6	Place Date and Time of Council and Committee Meetings	The time and place of meetings will be determined by the Executive Head of Legal and Democratic Services and notified in the summons.	Guildford specify the time and place for each of their Council meetings (a) Annual Meeting (b) Ordinary meetings (dates agreed annually) (c) extraordinary meetings (to deal with urgent business)	An annual calendar of meetings will be agreed by the Monitoring Officer, in consultation with Group Leaders and will detail the dates, time and location of all meetings.	Is ridged than GBC allows for greater flexibility than WBC.
7	Notice of and summons to Meetings	The Executive Head of Legal and Democratic Services will give notice to the public of the time and place of any meeting in accordance with the Local Government Act 1972 and the Access to Information Rules.	The Joint Chief Executive will give notice to the public of the time and place of any Council meeting in accordance with the Access to Information Procedure Rules in Part 4 of this Constitution. Where the meeting has been called by councillors, the notice shall specify the business to be transacted.	The Proper Officer will give notice to the public of the time and place of any meeting in accordance with the Access to Information Rules	Is less rigid and gives greater flexibility to both councils.
8	Chair of Council meeting	The person presiding at the meeting may exercise any power or duty of the Mayor. Where these rules apply to committee and sub-committee meetings references to the Mayor also include the Chair of committees and sub-committees.	At a meeting of the Council, the Mayor, if present, shall preside. If the Mayor is absent from a meeting of the Council, the Deputy Mayor, if present, shall preside. If both the Mayor and Deputy Mayor are absent from a meeting of the Council, then the Joint Chief Executive or another officer representing him or her shall initially preside, and the first business of the meeting shall be to elect	The person presiding at the meeting may exercise any power or duty of the Mayor. If it is necessary to choose a member of the Council (who cannot be a member of the Executive) to preside in the absence of the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor, the Monitoring Officer or their representative will preside and call for a motion that a Member of the Council take the Chair.	The wording and the procedure has been rephased to offer greater clarity.

10	Duration of Meetings	Meetings of the Council should normally finish by 10.00 pm but, at a convenient time before then, the Chair shall put to the meeting the options of: agreeing to a half hour extension to 10.30 pm, at which time the meeting shall stand adjourned; or continuing the meeting until the Council or committee has concluded its consideration of the agenda; or adjourning the meeting. No business other than that set out in the agenda shall be discussed at any adjourned meeting	Unless otherwise decided by a majority of councillors present and voting at the meeting, all meetings shall finish by no later than 10.30pm. Any outstanding items not completed by the end of the meeting shall be adjourned to a reconvened meeting or the next ordinary meeting of the Council.	Where any meeting of the Council, a committee or sub-committee, has lasted 3 hours, the person presiding will interrupt the meeting and any member speaking shall stop speaking. The person presiding shall, without discussion, take a vote on whether the meeting should continue following completion of the item of business under consideration at the time. If the majority of Members present vote to continue the meeting, then a further vote on whether or not to continue the meeting will take place on an hourly basis thereafter.	This allows more flexibility based on the start time of the meeting. It also makes provision for a further vote every hour thereafter.

Written submission 3 working days in advance, provisions for spontaneous questions.	The proposal brings inline the notice and scope of questions by members to 4 working days and provides more formal guidance regarding timings, responding to questions and questions without notice.	Provides clarity and combines and aligns the current Guildford and Waverley procedure rules.
13	Motions on Notice	Except for motions which can be moved without notice under Rule 13, written notice of every motion must be delivered to the Executive Head of Legal and Democratic Services at least seven clear working days before the date of the meeting.	Except for motions which can be moved without notice under Procedure Rule 12, written notice of every motion shall be delivered to the Democratic Services and Elections Manager not later than 12 noon on the seventh working day before the date of the meeting at which the motion is intended to be moved.	Notifying the Monitoring Officer instead of the DSE Manager no later than noon on the seventh working day before the date of the meeting. There will now be maximum time period for Motions on Notice of 60 minutes but no time limit for dealing with each individual motion.	The rules and have been reworded for clarity. The numbering amended to correspond with the new amendments.
14	Motions without Notice	Motions that may be moved without notice	Motions that may be moved without notice	Most of the rules for Motions without Notice remain unchanged, except for instead of beyond 10pm, it now states that meetings can continue beyond the 3-hour duration.	The rules have been reworded for clarity.
